Re: GMA Accessories, Inc. v. Bop LLC, et al.
Case No. 07 CV 3219 (LTS)(DCF)

Dear Judge Swain:

We represent defendant Eminent Inc. ("Eminent") in the above-captioned matter. Along with counsel for defendant Bop LLC ("Bop"), we write to request that Your Honor modify and clarify this Court's August 29 Memorandum Order Granting Default Judgment Motions and Injunction (the "Order"), a copy of which is attached hereto.

Specifically, in granting plaintiff's motion for default judgment against defendants Girlshop, Inc., Showroom Seven Studios, Inc., and Jonathan Solnicki (collectively, the "Defaulted Defendants"), Your Honor permanently enjoined the Defaulted Defendants "and all those acting in concert or active participation with them" from using the CHARLOTTE or CHARLOTTE SOLNICKI mark. See Order at 5.

Because defendants Eminent and Bop (a) were not parties to the default motion practice that gave rise to the Order, and (b) believe that – as mere end-sellers of products containing the allegedly infringing mark – they are not acting in concert or active participation with the Defaulted Defendants, Eminent and Bop do not believe Your Honor intended the Order to apply to Eminent or Bop. However, to avoid any suggestion that Eminent or Bop might be violating the Order by continuing to sell what they in good faith believe are non-infringing items, Eminent and Bop respectfully request that Your Honor modify the Order to clarify that it is not intended to apply to Eminent and Bop or to Bop's parent, Amazon.com, Inc. In the interim, in an abundance of caution, Eminent and Bop have each taken steps to remove the allegedly infringing items from their respective websites pending clarification of the Order.

Counsel for Defendant Eminent Inc.
Jeffrey Wang
Counsel for Defendant Bop LLC
